W. D. SANDERS SCHOLARSHIP FOR STUDY ABROAD

Scholarships will be awarded for language study in Germany or Austria. These scholarships are available to rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors who will have completed German 153 or above by the time of the award period. The awards are designated specifically (and in order of preference) for 1) summer language study; 2) supplemental aid for a semester or year of study at IES program in Berlin, Freiburg, or Vienna; or 3) a semester of study at the Flow House in Vienna, Austria.

Completed applications must be returned to the administrative assistant of the Department of German and Russian, 333 Greene Hall, by the Monday after Thanksgiving break. Completed applications consist of:

- 1) This completed form, along with the attached narrative replies to questions 4 and 5;
- 2) Two letters of recommendation, one of which should be from a faculty member other than German;
- 3) A WFU transcript.

1. What is the intended purpose of your grant? Check one: [note sequence of preference]
 - summer language study
 - supplemental aid for semester or year at IES
 - semester of study at Flow House in Vienna

2. List all courses in German completed by the end of this semester, including number of years of high school German.

3. State briefly your experiences in German-speaking countries – residence, study, or travel – and their duration.

Please answer each of the following questions on separate sheets of paper.

4. Please describe (in a half page or less) what you propose to do with your scholarship funds (i.e. language study at the Goethe Institut, summer or semester at the Flow House, semester or year with IES). It would be helpful to offer as many details as you have (for the Goethe Institut, how many weeks, where, and why you selected this location; for the Flow House, what semester; if IES, what location).

5. Please provide a short biography (no more than one page) describing your interest in and study of German, your projected study or career path, and how your proposed plan of study might contribute to your future plans.
